TERMS AND CONDITIONS

You are required to pay a deposit upon acceptance of this contract

$125.00 to pick up and freeze dry or $100.00 to freeze dry if you choose to drop off your flowers here.

Deposits are non refundable.

The cost of your frame and the redesign of your bouquet are over and above the cost of the freeze drying process.

If you decide to use your own frame you will be charged a design fee.

Customer acknowledges that the preservation of flowers is a scientific process and that many factors affect the success of this process.

Some flowers will change colors and in most cases we will use color enhancement.

If any of your flowers were damaged during the ceremony or reception we can replace those flowers.

The cost of these flowers will be at wholesale prices and you will determine which flowers you want replaced.

Your order and signed contract serve as your consent to allow our designers to create your display using their best judgment, within your selections.

We will not be held responsible nor held liable for flower spoilage due to acts of nature, power failure or mechanical failure beyond our control.

The freeze dry process will take one to three months time to complete.

Once your flowers are finished being freeze dried you will be called to set an appointment to pick your frame or other design container.

Your appointment must be made within one month after you are notified. If after 60 days you still have not set an appointment to pick and pay for your frame or other design container all flowers and monies paid will become the property of Forever After.

All display pieces must be paid for in full when ordered.

Once your design is complete we will store it for you for one months time. After that time it will be considered abandoned and become the property of Forever After.

The long term care of your design is dependent on factors beyond our control and therefore no guarantees or refunds are made.

ALL SALES ARE FINAL.

I understand and agree to the Terms and Conditions mentioned above.
